The Society may take photographs, audio, recordings, and video footage (“Material”) at the Annual Meeting and use them to promote future events, in direct mail and email marketing, newsletters, educational materials, social media, press releases and broadcasts over the internet, through our broadcast partners, or via other broadcast services (“Permitted Use”).

- For Material where inclusion of your image or personal data is incidental and you cannot be identified, the Society does not consider it to be feasible or necessary to obtain your express permission.
- You acknowledge and agree that by attending the Annual Meeting, Material may be created for which your image is in the forefront of the Material, and you can be identified, but you are not the intended subject matter. If you do not want to be included in such Material, please notify the Society prior to your arrival at the Annual Meeting. If you do not notify the Society of such, your attendance at the Event is deemed consent to us or our third parties creating the Material and using it for the Permitted Use.
- Where the Society asks you to be photographed, interviewed, or filmed and you agree to do so, your acceptance to be photographed, interviewed or filmed will be deemed consent for our use of the Material for the Permitted Use.
- Where consent is provided or deemed in accordance with clauses above, you do not object to the Society:
 - storing copies of the Materials for as long as necessary to fulfil the Permitted Use; and
 - sharing the Material with the Society and/or third parties the Society appoints in connection with achieving the Permitted Use.
- You have the right to withdraw the consent you have provided but this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out by the Society before you withdrew your consent. For the purposes of data protection laws, Society is the controller and responsible for the personal data comprising the Materials.
- By attending the Annual Meeting, you hereby agree to the Society collecting and using your name, photograph, and biography in connection with the Permitted Use. You can request to have your image removed if you wish.
- You agree that the Society is the owner of all Material and that in relation to your image, you hereby waive any rights attached to the use of such image by the Society including the waiver of any moral rights or image rights and agree that the Society shall be entitled to edit, crop, splice, treat and edit (at the Society’s discretion) without the need to inspect or review the Material.
- In certain circumstances Participants, Exhibitors and other Attendees may take photographs or conduct filming. In such circumstances the Society does not have control over what images they collect and their use of such and if you have any questions in relation to this you should discuss this with the relevant third party.
