Diabetes Patient Advocacy Coalition

People impacted by diabetes will tell you that it is an all-consuming, complex disease made even more difficult by unmanageable costs. Join the Endocrine Society and the Diabetes Patient Advocacy Coalition (DPAC) to learn about issues affecting people with diabetes that make it challenging to effectively manage their disease. Hear from patients, endocrinologists, and diabetes educators about the impact of affordable access challenges to life-sustaining insulin and the need for increased utilization of diabetes self-management training.

OCTOBER 1, 2018 | 12:00-1:00 PM

2043 RAYBURN HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING

Complimentary lunch and refreshments will be served.
