MARCH 28-31, 2020 SAN FRANCISCO, CA

CLINICAL TRIAL SUBMISSION INFORMATION

SUBMISSION DEADLINE EXTENDED: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2019 1:00PM EST US

ENDO IS A FANTASTIC VENUE FOR YOUR CLINICAL TRIAL RESEARCH!

Highlight your ongoing and future clinical trials by submitting a Clinical Trial abstract to ENDO 2020, the Endocrine Society's Annual Meeting. Showcase your work, recruit participants, and drive engagement at the world's largest gathering of endocrinologists.

Benefits of presenting at ENDO 2020 include:

- Peer review by top scientists in endocrinology
- Exposure at the world's largest gathering of endocrinologists
- Ability to advertise open recruitments

PRELIMINARY DATA IS WELCOME

The Society understands that limited data may be available at the time of the submission deadline. The abstract submission should detail the trial design and rationale, inclusion criteria, primary clinical endpoints, and any available preliminary data. Lead investigators are still encouraged to submit if additional data is anticipated to be available for presentation by March 28, 2020.

SUBMISSION OPTIONS

During the submission process, authors may indicate whether they would like their abstract to be withdrawn if it is not selected for an oral presentation at ENDO 2020. Authors may also opt to embargo the publication of their abstract until the date of presentation.
